When Maroon finally succeeds in "pulling up" the conspiracy, he is able to identify him by means of a system of radio communication
he has perfected, and manages to locate the "radio" machine which is the key to the mystery. Maroon discovers that there has been a change of plans and that the "radio" machine is now in the hands of the enemy. Maroon and his men are forced to fight their way through a maze of traps and obstacles. Maroon's car is destroyed, and he goes hurtling over a steep cliff with its engine running.

"THE RADIO KING"
Universal Scientific Serial
Starring ROY STEWART
#9 "The Trail of Vengeance"

Fearful of the fate Marnee threatens to mete out to Lane and Jimmy, Ruth reveals the secret of her father's disc, disclosing the method of recalling "lost" radio messages. Marnee then retires to a hidden laboratory where he perfects his master wave which will nullify all electrical energy and makes its inventor all-powerful throughout the world.

When Marnee finally attempts to "burn up" the atmosphere, Lane is able to identify him by means of a system of radio visualization he has perfected, and manages to locate him by a directional "feeler" another of his inventions. Marnee discovers that Lane has located his whereabouts and determines to trap him. His spies report that Lane, Ruth and Jimmy are coming towards his rendezvous in Lane's radio-controlled auto. Marnee arranges that the car shall be misdirected; it goes hurtling over a steep cliff with its human cargo.
